This month, Nick Grew writes:

I find it hard to believe that we're already almost half-way through Lent as April begins! However you've chosen to fast and pray in order to draw closer to God, I wonder how it's going? Matthew and Luke describe the Holy Spirit leading Jesus into the wilderness but the language in Mark is much more forceful and urgent. Mark speaks of the Spirit driving Jesus out. It sounds less like a polite suggestion and more like a shove in the back. If the Spirit has been shoving you, but to no effect as yet, there is still time to respond.

Because of when Easter falls, the schools are on holiday from early in April and there are no children's groups this month. This is such an opportunity and I am really excited by the prospect of a 20:20 Mothering Sunday, a Healing Family Service on the 10th and a Ju:C in Church Workshop on Palm Sunday. These services especially will bring all ages together in ways that I hope and believe will affirm and release God's blessing. Come along with anticipation!

In Holy Week on Monday-Wednesday we have brief spoken evening services, on Maundy Thursday we share in Holy Communion with the Baptist church, and then on Good Friday there is the walk of witness, the all-age service and the Hour by the Cross. Try to participate in at least one of these. It's all too easy to step from Palm Sunday to Easter and gloss over the passion and suffering of Jesus as he willingly walked the way of the Cross. If we grasp the reality of that, even slightly, then our Easter joy will be all the more fulsome!
