

August Diary 2009

Large print copies available.

The last few weeks have felt quite breathless - Civic Service, visit from Chris Neal (speaker on our church weekend), Brownie Celebration, Jon and Jo Parsons from Turning Point and Centenary Weekend at St Saviour's! Despite the wide range, from every one of these I have heard stories of people being touched by Jesus - that excites and encourages me! Making Jesus Visible by Word and Power is integral to all we are about.

Now as we enter a season lived at a different pace, I feel we all need to throttle back and listen. When The Lord says, "Be still, and know that I am God!", it's not a suggestion but a command. Sure, there are still things to be done, but let's take more time to listen, for unless we stop we will not hear Him.

On the first Sunday in September, in the evening, I'll be inviting people to share how God has spoken to them over the Summer - it may be through a great conference speaker but it might just as likely be a still small voice as you sat in your deck chair! Please come to share on September 6th; I'll be waiting to hear from you.

Have a great Summer

Nick Grew
