Vicar's February Jottings

Over the past few weeks whenever I've needed a lift I've gone online to the blog set up by my Daughter and Son-in-law where there is a lovely video of our grandson, Toby, walking. He is 13 months old or so, and walking is new to him, so his gait is wide and rolling and at the end of the video he drops onto his nappy-cushioned bottom. As he walks he is quietly chattering and waving a book - his sense of achievement is evident in his smile! For Toby this phase of life is full of new possibilities matched by a whole new set of risks.

As we've been studying Ephesians 4:1-16 ahead of running the Servant Course, we've found St Paul describing a progression of maturity he longs to see in the Church. The mix and interaction of unity, love, grace and gifts are all there so that we can move from being infants to becoming mature. Our aim is to be growing up in Christ and growing up into Christ, so that working together we can embody his presence and do his work.

I hope that, whether you are doing the Servant Course or not, you have caught the challenge of service through using your God-given gifting. If that's the case then we will be seeing many of us over the next few months trying out our gifts both within and beyond the church. We were born-again for maturity in Christ. There are no shortcuts and we'll need to be encouraging to one another and honest if we are to help each other do a bit more growing up.

Like Toby, our attempts may not be elegant at first and we will fall over several times, but the opportunities and possibilities will be worth it. And as we serve in this way, take responsibility in this way and encourage one another in this way, then we as a church will also be growing up, and God will be glorified. Happy toddling!
