

January Diary 2007

Vicar's January Jottings

When Jesus describes himself in Revelation 1:4 as the one “who is, and who was, and who is to come” am I the only person to find the order a bit odd? I understand that he is “Alpha and Omega”, and that he is “the same yesterday, today and forever”, so I think that Jesus should logically express himself as “was... is... and is to come”. But just to show he really does mean what he says, Jesus repeats his words 4 verses later, “who is, and was, and who is to come”.

As we turn the corner into another year we may feel all sorts of things from excitement to foreboding to simply, ‘here we go again’! Whatever our state of mind I wonder if Jesus wants us to focus upon his presence above all other aspects of his life and ministry. Yes, he was before all things and yes, he will bring all things to completion, but first and foremost it’s our relationship with him now and today that He wants us to be assured of. Our confidence in all that Jesus has done and will do gives value to his presence with us today and every day this year ahead. “Surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age” (Matt.28:20)
