Vicar's July Jottings

On Sunday May 13th a Peacock appeared on the HT Hall roof. People coming to church were captivated & astonished. He stayed there until late in the afternoon. I was going to StS to preach so I stood outside & prayed as the HT service began. I heard the chorus of the first song in church >>>

*Come and fill this place with your glory
Come and captivate our gaze
Come and fill us with your Spirit
That the world might know your name*

The peacock

- Ancient symbol of immortality.
- Tail feather 'eyes' symbolise omnipotence
- Ascribed to Archangel Michael.

I sensed that God had revealed himself to us for an encouragement and a purpose. At the healing service that evening many were blessed. <<< I discovered this from the Internet.

Through the next couple of weeks the peacock was around in our community. One night I kept waking up and every time I woke I heard the distinctive cry of that peacock. I prayed again & heard the words of another song >>>

*Here I am, Lord, is it I Lord?
I have heard you calling in the night.
I will go, Lord, if you lead me,
I will hold your people in my heart*

For the eyes of the Lord range throughout the earth to strengthen those whose hearts are fully committed to Him

<<< Margaret Oldroyd told me she had been praying about the peacock and was led to 2 Chronicles 16 verse 9.

I believe God wants us to know he is powerfully present when we meet to worship and just as much out there in our community. This ties in with our belief that God is calling us to engage more with our community, seeking for us to be committed to him out there. Please pray about this sign, and wonder with me...
