Vicar's June jottings

...he lifted up his hands and blessed them. While he was blessing them, he left them and was taken up into heaven [Luke 24:50 & 51]. Jesus wanted to leave the disciples and all his church with the impression of his face turned towards us and his arms lifted in blessing. His eyes of love, compassion and discernment are still turned towards this world, and his arms remain raised with the desire to bless in the same way that his work on earth brought wholeness, healing and life.

As his people and his church we are called to make visible and real today the person of Jesus by continuing his mission. We are to be those who see and bless. And St Paul tells us that the same power that raised Jesus to life and seated him in heaven with all authority and power, is at work in us and through us with the same capacity to give life and the same authority to heal [Eph. 1:19-23].
