This month, Jo Birkby, your Church Administrator, writes:

Gladys Aylward, missionary to China more than fifty years ago, was forced to flee when the Japanese invaded Yuncheng. With only one assistant, she led a hundred orphans over the mountains toward free China. During the journey she grappled with fear. After passing a sleepless night she faced the morning with no hope of reaching safety. A thirteen-year-old girl in the group reminded her of their much-loved story of Moses and the Red Sea. 'But I am not Moses,' Gladys sighed in despair. 'Of course you aren't,' the girl said, 'but God is still God!' When Gladys and the orphans made it through they proved once again that no matter how inadequate we feel, God is still God, and we can still trust Him.

During my planning for Messy Church, I have often felt inadequate, not up to the task of leadership and - quite frankly - scared! Yet time after time, I have seen so many prayers answered. From the provision of resources, inspiration for crafts and the countless people who are always willing to help. Every part I have trusted to God and every credit is due to him. So, no matter what task God has given you to do, he will never leave you powerless when you continue to place your trust in him. The journey may be rocky in places (remember there were giants even when God's people reached the promised land) but God will always be God. "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart." Jeremiah 29:11-13
