Bonnie's parting gift...

At the start of Lent there was a parish half day of prayer to pray for the needs of the church. Some of those who prayed in church that day felt an overwhelming sadness that many from our congregations were missing out on God's best for them and the church was missing out too.

Prayer is such a fundamental part of our faith that we can be tempted to think that if we don't pray regularly for the church and its leadership, someone else will and that somehow the church will be blessed by God even if we don't ask. That can lead us into imagining that we are not needed in the church at all and that it can carry on without us. The opposite is the reality. If we are called as individuals to belong to this parish, we are also called to pray with and for it regularly. When we pray together we see our church, our leaders and ourselves blessed beyond measure. We have a value that says prayer kept central in our church. But is it? The sadness felt on the half day of prayer was that God had so many good things in store for us as a church but we were missing out because we were distracted from praying by many things like Martha in Luke 10:38 – 42. Why not take these last few weeks in Lent to become still with our Lord – like Mary who chose to sit at the Lord's feet and listen to him. Her reward was both in learning to be still with Jesus and in having her needs met by him. It could be ours too if we are prepared to be disciplined and pray.

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart." - Jeremiah 29:11-13
