

March Diary 2006

Vicar's March Jottings

About 35 of us met on the 7th February to seek God's voice in prayer. We came bringing to The Lord some specific questions but also to listen more widely to Him. If you were there you know what happened, if you were not there, find someone who was and ask them to tell you how things went and what they got out of it. It's impossible to tell the whole and we'd just end up missing the wood for the trees. I think we all went away encouraged by God.

Trying to draw together the key directions I believe we heard, I would say God said to us:

- Healthy values will grow out of healthy worship – Love for God and one another.
- We already have all we need to accomplish God's work and each of us must face the challenge to be obedient to God's call.
- We are to give a stronger emphasis to our relationships with the wider community.
- For now and for what is coming we need to make better use of our buildings, and develop them imaginatively, not just for ourselves but for others.
- The following Bible verses were shared and can be set alongside the above – Colossians 3:1-3, Hosea 6:1-3, Isaiah 55, Isaiah 58:6-14.

February 7th was not the only day we can be listening to God as a church or as individuals. Lent is fast approaching, why not use that season to take time aside for listening, seeking prayer? Whatever you give up in Lent, use for that purpose the resource or time that is released. Whatever you receive, act upon that which is for you, and appropriately share what is meant for others. God knows what would happen if we all did that...
