Vicar's May Jottings

Right now the evidence of Spring is unmistakable and undeniable – blossom, leaves, bulbs coming up through unexpected places, longer days... It's all new and yet we've seen it all before.

Right now the evidence of Jesus risen from the dead is unmistakable and undeniable – [you fill in this bit yourself...]. Again the life of Jesus is new even if we think we've seen it all before.

How are we, and I, and you, part of the evidence by life and word? As I watch the cut flowers of Easter displays fade and get thrown away, how different they are to the recurring testimony of those in gardens and woodlands. As Peter said on the Day of Pentecost, "God has raised this Jesus to life and we are all witnesses of the fact" (Acts 2:32).
