Vicar's November jottings

Imagine the scene: it's half-an-hour before the service and already there's a queue outside the church door. People are clamouring to get in. They want the front seats. There's an excited buzz of anticipation as the church fills up. Some are even standing at the back and sides in case they miss something... Is this a dream?

No!! It actually happened three times in a week last month as parents came to Holy Trinity to watch their children in the Lower School harvest presentations. Now go back and re-read the beginning of my piece and see if you can imagine it happening on a Sunday. Go away and read Psalm 95 out loud. Ask yourself whether you could be part of making that dream a reality, and come next week ready to hear God's voice...

This month we are giving out much more detail about re:fresh, our weekend away next March 7th-9th. Please pick up a leaflet and give us a quick response. Saying 'yes' now is not a firm commitment but it will help us make plans especially if you add ideas we can work with. Costs are less than currently at Ashburnham and the Venue is much closer & much more comfortable, but if finance is an issue, please indicate and I will talk with you in confidence about how we can help.

We really do want everyone to feel they can come, so if you're excited, invite a friend to come as well! If you're unsure, invite friends to come with you! If you've never been to this kind of weekend then make this the one you come on! Fast and pray that people on the edge of our church family will come. Pray for those of us as we plan. And please tell us your own response in the next couple of weeks so we can get it right.

Nick Grew
